The Shared Parenting Program classes are designed to assist parents, who are not living together, learn to work and communicate with each other in their roles of raising their children.

What are the days, times and location of the classes?

Classes for non-custodial parents held every Tuesday evening for two hours, 6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m. at ~~Guardian House, 1818 San Pedro, San Antonio, TX 78212.~~ ONLINE CLASS ONLY – instructions on Pg.2

What will Shared Parenting classes cost?

If you are enrolled in the Shared Parenting Program, classes are free.

Do I have to take the class?

Yes. The Shared Parenting classes are mandatory for the non-custodial parents seeking assistance from the Domestic Relations Office (DRO) meeting grant funding requirements.

What can I expect in the classes?

You will experience a relaxed environment, session discussions along with helpful handouts. Each participant will receive a certificate upon successful completion of the four classes. You will need to provide the DRO a copy of the certificate.

Is child care available?

Yes, child care is provided but you must call 24 hours in advance to request child care.

How do I begin the classes?

You will be signed up by the coordinator once you are accepted into the program. You may start classes the following Tuesday.

Can I bring my spouse/ significant other?

Yes. Non-custodial parents may bring their current spouse/partner to participate in the classes.

What if I have to miss a class?

Classes are held on a rolling schedule. If a class is missed, you can attend the next time that class is offered. Please discuss with instructor as weekly attendance are shared with DRO staff. The class topics are as follows:

Session I—Parenting Together

Session II—Anger Management

Session III---Promoting Positive Changes

Session IV-- Parenting Forever

Please feel free to contact our office if you have any questions about the Shared Parenting class or the children's support group.

We look forward to working with you and your family!
